SPEAK, LORD, WE ARE LISTENING

In today's first reading God keeps calling out in the night to a sleeping boy. Neither the boy, Samuel, nor his teacher, Eli, understands who is calling. But God's persistence convinces them. Samuel is then ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak, for your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3:10). In the Gospel Jesus is out teaching. Various people notice him and begin to gather around. They soon become disciples and, like the young Samuel, are ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak," they say, "we are listening." God's voice is always with us, awake or asleep. It swirls around us like fog on a waterfront, enveloping us, gently urging us to wake up, to listen. Awareness of the voice comes first; then willingness to listen; then, in time, the decision to act, to live according to God's word. Let's ask today for the ability to keep our ears open so we don't miss God's voice. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every year, close to the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on January 25, and before the feast of the Chair of St. Peter on February 22, the cause of Church unity is commended to Christians everywhere. Sadly, Protestants, Orthodox, and Catholics have settled to a status quo of separation. When baptized people become Catholic, we speak of them as being received into "full communion." That means we already share a communion in faith in many ways, including the Word of God. Many Protestant denominations have received and revised the three-year cycle of readings first arranged by Catholics in the early 1970s. Therefore, many of your neighbors who are not Catholic are celebrating and reflecting on the same readings we are savoring on most Sundays of the year. This makes for a new spirit of cooperation among preachers of the gospel, and gives hope that the cause of reunion, desired by Christ, has great vitality at the table of God's Word, and will one day lead to unity at the table of the Lord's Body and Blood.

ST. ANNE'S C.S.S. NEWS

Happy New Year, Everyone! The students of St. Anne's were all happy to return back to the routine of school and to work hard for the last few weeks of Semester One. Quality Assessment Tasks (QATs) and Exam preparation take a major focus over the next two weeks. A quiet week begins on the 17th as we all settle down from co-curricular activities and focus in on exams. Our Gr. 9 students write their EQAO Math Assessment on the 18th, 19th and 20th. Exams begin on the 24th and will finish on the 27th unless there is a snow day. Please pray for us as do our best to finish the semester using our minds, bodies and spirit to our fullest potential. We celebrated an extra civics day on Friday, January 13 as we all dressed in yellow to raise awareness and funds for The Alzheimer's Association. Many of our winter teams played hard this past week and will be taking a break to prepare for exams. Our Arts programs, who have been rehearsing for upcoming performances, will also take a break. We wish everyone peace, health, happiness and God's abundant blessings for 2012.

***STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS*****

January 15 – 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
God is calling... is He getting a busy signal? In today's readings, God calls Samuel and Christ calls His first disciples. Through our baptism 'each' of us, not just 'some' of us, are called to discipleship. There are two flanks of discipleship – stewardship & evangelization. Are these two a part of your response to God's call? Without them your discipleship would be incomplete.

January 22 – 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
There exists in our parish community a diversity of unique gifts. God has provided these gifts in order to advance His Kingdom. Our sisters and brothers in other Christian denominations have also been blessed with unique gifts that are being used for the same purpose. This Wednesday, January 25 the Annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity comes to a close. We pray that all Christians be good stewards of their relationships with one another, seeking to listen to and to understand each other, being always patient and humble, so that the Body of Christ may be truly united.
